Tina Thyme

Congratulations! Your generosity to Hannibal community's needs has Hannibal Piecemakers Quilt Guild the recipient of the Community Betterment award from Hannibal's Chamber of Commerce. The gala event was fun. Sorry there was only 48 hour notification for this event. It would have been fun to have more people present. Two members were there to share the recognition. The award will be at the March meeting.

MARCH PROGRAM

Time to finalize details for the quilt show with the show committees giving updates.

APRIL PROGRAM

Sharon will present "Quilt Show Appreciation 101" along with last-minute preparations for the show.

MARCH WORKSHOP

March 16 -- 9-3
 Park United Methodist Church
 Cost is $5. We will work on a quilt called Monkey Business from the book, Scrap-Basket Surprises by Kim Brackett. The quilt measures 53 x 65. You will need:
 25 strips of 2 1/2" x 42" light assorted fabrics for blocks
 18 strips of 2 1/2" x 42" dark assorted fabric for blocks
 2 yards for outer border and binding
 1/2 yard for inner border
 Cutting:
 Light strips should be cut to 200 rectangles measuring 2 1/2" by 4 1/2" and 4 squares at 2 1/2".
 Dark strips should be cut to 144 rectangles measuring 2 1/2" x 4 1/2".
 Please have these cut and ready for sewing. I did mine in batiks, but you can use any style of fabric you prefer.

BE READY TO SMILE

We LOVE having new members, but sometimes it's find it difficult to remember names. So, beginning at the February meeting, Linda Belford will be set up to take your picture for a photo directory of members. The file with a photo and name of each member will be saved into the files folder on our private Facebook page and will also be emailed to everyone. We would love to have everyone participate!

Gina Janes is from Hannibal, MO. She has been quilting 33 years and sewing since age 9. Gina is owner of Batting by the Roll in Hannibal which she started in 2019. She has been a professional longarm quilter since 2010. Her favorite part of making a quilt is starting it. Gina was influenced to begin quilting by her sister-in-law, Dee, who helped her make her first quilt for her first baby. She states, "When my friend Jean Buffington and I joined HPQG in February 1993 the fun has never ended." She has been president 3 times in the last 30 years. Gina's other interests are "gardening, traveling, and fun!" Her favorite quilting personality is Ricky Tims.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Anissa Toenjes is from Frankford, MO. She has been quilting for 7 years. She is a Senior Account manager at Express Scripts serving military pharmacies in the US and abroad. Anissa enjoys the entire process of quilting from picking out the fabric to piecing and quilting. The person who influenced her to begin quilting was her Grandma Jennings who gave her a quilt block puzzle when she was a little girl. Since then she has been fascinated with quilt shapes, color, and patterns. She said the only "A" she received in a college art class was abstract quilt blocks she made from odds and ends of wood.

Anissa's other interests are traveling, reading, family genealogy, and shopping for unique fabrics on her travels. She watches Just Get It Done Quilts on You Tube. Anissa loves Kaffe Fassett Collective Fabrics. Last fall she took a color class taught by Kaffe and Brandon Mably. She states "I might have fangirled a little!"
