APRIL PROGRAM
MISSOURI QUILT MUSEUM

Guests for the April program will be Courtenay Hughes and Dakota Redford from Hamilton representing the Missouri Quilt Museum. Dakota is a history lover but new to the quilting field and is the curator for the museum. Courtenay has been quilting for over 30 years, has a class on Craftsy called Luminous Lone Star and is currently the head of the sewing team at Missouri Star. She has been on several of the Missouri Star videos and Facebook Lives. They will be sharing the curating process, goals and operational themes related to the museum. Their presentation will begin at 6:00, so please be settled in ready to enjoy learning more about the museum.

Please remember to bring in your Round Robin blocks to pass to the next person in your group!
