Cindy's thoughts

Greetings Quilters!! The dog days of summer are upon us and it's time for our July Challenge—Faces!!! Please refer to our June newsletter for all the information you will need to showcase your project at our July meeting. We will be having our Carry-in dinner where meat and drinks will be provided. Please bring a covered dish to share. If you have not picked up your Opportunity Quilt tickets, please be ready to do so at the meeting. If unable to attend, please plan with someone to pick up for you or you may call me and I would be happy to make arrangements with you. Quilters Newsletter published a study which tells us that there are 21 million quilters in the US, predominately female and average age is 62. This data was published in 2010. Wouldn't it be interesting if Quilting was an Olympic Competition???? Keep feeding that stash!!!! -- Cindy

WANTED -- YOUR DONATIONS

If you have stash that you no longer want, the Quilting Class at Pittsfield High School could use it. Size doesn't matter as they make art quilts, drawstring bags, pillows, placemats and many other projects. The students tend to prefer geometrics, plaids, solids and novelty, rather than flowers. Donations may be given to Linda Belford

QUILT SHOW UPDATE

Still looking for a couple more volunteers to showcase one or two quilts for a 2-hour session on Saturday, April 2.

Also need someone to be in charge of outdoor signs and to see if we need to order any new signs.

The website should be open soon for members. Please continue to work on your quilts and apply hanging sleeves.

I really appreciate all who have volunteered already and have helped so much!
