Gina's

communiqué

September is the beginning of fall and we expect the weather to cool down, yet we have another heat wave to deal with, so stay cool. Hope you have plans to adventure out to a few of the quilt shops that are in the All Missouri Shop Hop. I would like to thank our guild members who stepped up and filled 2024 executive positions and committees. We are going to have another amazing year! We only need to fill the Charity, Workshop and Bus Trip Committees. Please contact Gina, Lesa or Kia if interested. -- Gina

TIP: When threading a needle, knot the thread on the end where it is cut from the spool, this helps avoid knots when stitching.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

In September we'll host Ilene Bartos, quilt designer from Urbandale, Iowa for a trunk show centered around color theory. She will be teaching a class Wednesday following the meeting. This will be a great opportunity to learn some new quilting techniques, use of threads, and learn an innovative way to hang small quilts. It's very possible you'll go home with a small art quilt quilted.

SEWING AND FELLOWSHIP

Gina will be unavailable to open the KC Hall for sew day due to the Missouri Shop Hop. If there is anyone willing to take on that responsibility during September and/or October, please contact Gina. Watch the Facebook page for an update.

FALL LEAF CLASS SEPTEMBER 6, 2024 WE STILL HAVE ROOM FOR YOU!

With Ilene Bartos we will explore a number of ways to enhance your choice of six simple leaf shapes. Techniques include Satin Stitching, Herky-Jerky Quilting, Foiling, Beading, and making the unique Copper Hangers which then can be applied to other quilting projects. Six different leaf patterns are available to choose from and are $10 each. They will be available at the September meeting as well as at class Wednesday, September 6.

A supply list is on our Facebook page as well as in last month's newsletter.

Contact Linda Belford at ldb.belford@gmail.com to register.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT AND FOLD LIFE FESTIVAL

Thank you to all who have turned in the chance tickets and money so far. If you need more tickets to sell, see me at the meeting. Please try and have all chances and money turned in to me at the October meeting. We will be giving the opportunity quilt away on Sunday, October 22, at 4 pm.

The Folk Life Festival is Saturday, October 21 and 22. Our booth is in front of the Hickory Stick. You will have to dress in a long skirt or appropriate era attire. If you don't have anything like that, there are full cover aprons in our supplies in the tent. If you have some hand stitching, you may bring that along to work on as you are selling chance tickets.

I will be passing around at the September and October meetings a sign up sheet to work on Saturday or Sunday. Each shift worked will get you a chance for a drawing at the November meeting for the wall hanging of our opportunity quilt. Also, the highest sellers of the chance tickets will also get prizes. -- Thanks, Sue Ann Winking

SALT RIVER QUILT SHOW

It's almost time again for the Salt River Quilt Show. It's coming up a little quicker this year, on the weekend of September 16 and 17. Entries will be due the 8th of September, and quilts will be hung on September 14 and judged on the 15th. As in prior shows, Marianne Bodine will be glad to pick quilts up at the guild meeting on September 5 if you wish to enter any, and will see that they are returned safely if you cannot pick them up on the 17th. An entry form can be obtained by going to the following website: Sixth Annual Salt River Quilt Show | Missouri State Parks \(mostateparks.com\). The theme of the show and primary quilt category is "Seasons of Our Lives," in the sense of the stages in life we go through from childhood to adulthood, our careers, our families, our travels, our major life events. Other categories this year are "Hand-Pieced or Hand-Quilted", "Other Quilted Items" (clothing, purses or bags, Christmas tree skirts, table or bed runners, etc.), "Small Quilts (baby quilts, miniatures, small wall-hangings, doll quilts, etc.), and, as always, "Miscellaneous Quilts" for those that don't fit elsewhere. Hope to see some of your lovely quilts at the show!

SEPTEMBER 16 WORKSHOP

Come join us on September 16 from 9am to 3pm at Park United Methodist Church.

This will be an opportunity to work on your community giving requirements!! Sewing is free if you're working on those. Mark your calendars!
