Gina's communiqué

Happy Fall Y'All, October brings in cool weather and much more time to sew. I personally love the fall colors on the trees, fall treats and fall fabric. This is the time of year that we also are starting to plan for next year's, programs, workshops, charity projects, vendor fair (April 1, 2023) and so much more. We need everyone to take part to make the guild run smoothly. The nomination committee has presented the list of officers and committees, but you can still throw your name in the ring. Folklife is October 15 & 16. We have open spots to work a couple of hours and hope you will come down and visit. Make sure you bring your tickets and money to the meeting and/or down to the booth at Folklife.

TIP: TAKE A PHOTO OF THE QUILT YOU ARE WORKING ON LAID OUT BEFORE YOU BEGIN SEWING IT TOGETHER. 1. YOU MIGHT SEE A MISTAKE IN THE BLOCKS. 2. BRINGS OUT A DIFFERENT VIEW OF THE COLORS. 3. GIVES YOU A REFERENCE WHEN YOU ARE SEWING IT TOGETHER.
