DECEMBER CHALLENGE

A HOLLY JOLLY CHRISTMAS

The December challenge is almost here.

The task is plain, the theme is bright: To stitch your heart in Christmas light!

With fabric stacks of red and green, it's time to let your holiday spirit be seen. From table runners, small and grand, to gorgeous wall hangings across the land, or a quilt to snuggle up in deep, while winter's chilly watch you keep.

Bring a new piece, or one you know, a favorite from long ago. But every project, small or wide, Must have its threads completely tied; It must be quilted, through and through, To show the care and love in you.

And when the final stitch is set, There is one thing you can't forget: Upon the back, a simple plea, A label placed for all to see. With your full name and the quilt's chosen title, A finish absolutely vital. We cannot wait, to see the joy this season brings.

Sandra Nix was a member of HPQG for nearly 20 years. Sadly, she passed on October 10, 2025. Sandy most recently served on the Community Giving Committee. She will be missed by all who knew her.

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

Kathy Kroeger will give a presentation about Watercolor quilts. It has nothing to do with painting!!! Come to the meeting to see and hear more.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

DECEMBER 6--Sue Winking will be teaching a Scrap Quilt.

Come join us for a fun day of sewing, you don't have to be working on the assigned project. You can work on something else if you want.

Bring your lunch or go out and eat it or bring it back and eat together. Thanks, Sue Ann Winking
